

Arlington Rural Community CIC

Weaving with Bulrush and other natural plant fibres workshop.

A 3-hour workshop from 10.30 - 1.30pm .

Cost: £35 per person inc tea and coffee. Bring your own picnic lunch

Date: Saturday 26th September 2026

Venue: The Education Barn, Home Farm, Arlington with thanks to The National Trust

Come and join local basket maker Jane Platten and discover the magic of bulrush and other plant fibres. It is a friendly and welcoming workshop, where we learn and explore the slow rhythm of weaving, using gentle and soft fibres such as bulrush, plantain and local grasses. We will learn together to create mini baskets, cordage and mats, using these gentle and magical fibres, gathered from the countryside.

All materials are included in the course fee.

What to bring:

Please bring along scissors or secateurs if you have them, a darning needle and a water spray bottle if you have one. You may prefer to wear an apron, or old clothes, and please wear shoes which cover your feet.

Please reserve a place on the course through john@brinscombe.co.uk
